Dear Friends,
It is a great pleasure for me to present the 2012-2013 issue of the Annual Donor Report. We are blessed with many generous families and volunteers who provide a wealth of support every year. This year, in particular, was a difficult one as many families and friends faced tremendous challenges in the wake of Hurricane Sandy. Together, we held strong and helped the community to rebuild and heal from the events of last October.

This unique time in history, overall, is one of change and challenge. With its ever-present global search engines, emerging economies and enlightened environmental concerns, the world of the future demands new capacities from all of us, no matter what our age. I can’t reinforce enough the importance of beginning a quality education early in life, and continuing that academic journey to prepare for an increasingly complex world.

Our students’ academic achievements and involvement in a wide variety of extracurricular activities, including athletics, the fine and performing arts and community service demonstrates their well-balanced education. One of my favorite RCDS phrases is “academics with a hug,” meaning that we challenge the children’s minds while giving them a nurturing environment to learn and grow, emotionally and behaviorally, as well as intellectually. In turn, our students and alumni respond by applying their own knowledge, talent and unique skills to help the world around them.

Plutarch, a noted Greek historian and essayist asserted that “the mind is not a vessel to be filled, but a fire to be kindled,” meaning that there is only so much one can gain from having knowledge thrown at them; rather, children need to be encouraged to actively seek it. Scholarship may seem goal-oriented, but those who reach for true understanding know that it is a road that has no end, and it is our job to support those who are just beginning the journey. Having been a teacher and administrator earlier in my career and Head RCDS Gator for these many years, I know firsthand the quality and capability of our talented and dedicated faculty. Simply put, our students excel because of our fine teachers and carefully constructed, safe, learning environment.

An RCDS education puts your children at an advantage in pursuing scholarship at the very best secondary schools and colleges, charting a course to help students navigate their future. Once again, this year’s graduates were able to choose from a wonderful selection of high schools. Please turn to page 25 because I know you will be impressed!

Our goal right now is to help the children do their very best and take advantage of every educational opportunity that comes their way. Later on, it will mean places for them at the schools of their choice and, eventually, in the workforce - as leaders, innovators and trusted members of any team. Most of all, RCDS graduates are good, strong people. These are individuals you will want as your neighbors, your friends and your work colleagues. These are men and women who were encouraged, at a very young age, to meet this new world on their own terms with innovation, kindness and responsibility. I truly believe that is the value of the RCDS experience.

Please accept my sincere appreciation for all of your support this year. I am delighted to report that RCDS Annual Giving achieved 75% parent participation for the third year in a row and our entire community collectively contributed to help us surpass our fiscal goal of $500,000! Please turn to page 4 for more information on the financials. Your generosity and support is a testament to your love for RCDS. Thank you, again, for all that you do for The Rumson Country Day School.

Sincerely,

Chad B. Small, Headmaster
Dear Friends,

This is an historic time at The Rumson Country Day School. In these ever-changing times, it is comforting to return to the shared values and time-honored traditions that help us to feel safe and grounded; the love and support of family, the encouragement of friends and the warm, welcoming embrace of the RCDS community. I was reminded of this in June as I watched our students participate in one of RCDS’ most beloved traditions, Class Day, a wonderful ceremony that occurs on the last day of school. Directed by new Student Council President Paul Thomas, and in front of their family and friends, members of each class ceremoniously moved up a row as they were formally promoted to the next grade. To me, this ritual symbolizes the 11-year continuum of learning at The Rumson Country Day School. Despite the whirlwind of change around us, our beloved little school on the corner of Bellevue Avenue and Ridge Road remains deeply rooted in tradition and committed to its mission.

Our core values of kindness, honesty, respect and responsibility are the essence of what happens everyday at RCDS; we challenge our students in a safe and nurturing environment, guide them through the sometimes turbulent years of early adolescence and then stand with them as they take that final giant step into the world beyond RCDS. You, too, are a part of this equation. Your encouragement and support of this special environment, exemplified through your financial contributions to our school, is essential to our success and insures that we will continue to pass the torch to the next generation of RCDS students.

This new school year will be met with many changes and the Annual Donor Report is no exception. We have streamlined this publication and changed the delivery date to early fall in order to steward the financial support of our donors in a more timely fashion. At the core of the school’s success is our RCDS community - its faculty, administrators, students and parents. Even as renovations and additions are constructed, we realize that the true strength of our school lies within the classroom. Small classes with expert and individual attention remain the hallmark of the RCDS experience. Essential to that success is the support of our extended community of alumni, past parents, grandparents and friends, whose collective generosity allows us to grow and improve as an institution.

We have an exciting, landmark year ahead as we celebrate Headmaster Chad Small’s achievements, prepare for his retirement in June and select a new leader for the school. The RCDS Head of School Search Committee is hard at work to find Mr. Small’s successor. The RCDS Board of Trustees continues to operate with a deep professional regard for its responsibility to see that the mission of the school is fulfilled. Together with the administration and faculty, we bring tremendous energy, effort and expertise to every aspect of independent school life. Thank you for helping us to successfully implement our vision for The Rumson Country Day School’s future.

Vitae Discer,

Shawn Reynolds
President, RCDS Board of Trustees
The following report outlines the gifts generated from all members of The Rumson Country Day School community during the 2012-13 fiscal year. These contributions are outlined in greater detail in the following pages. The Rumson Country Day School surpassed its goal of $500,000 with a final dollar total of $506,363.00 providing critical support to the operating budget of the school. Additionally, seventy-five percent of current RCDS parents participated in Annual Giving for the third consecutive year.

*Note that this year, 24 donors were welcomed into the Vitae Discipoli Society for five or more consecutive years of contributions to Annual Giving. For more information and a complete listing of these society members, please visit page 17.

Annual Giving First is a tradition at The Rumson Country Day School and the single-most important and impactful fundraising opportunity of the year. It is a tax-deductible and critical part of the financial model of independent schools like RCDS, bridging the gap between tuition and the true cost of a child’s education. The Rumson Country Day School is grateful for all who participate in Annual Giving.

Horizons has operated on the generously donated campus of The Rumson Country Day School for eighteen years. Each summer, Horizons offers a six-week academic, cultural, and recreational enrichment program to at-risk students from a diverse, low-income population. Our students are in grades K-8 and live primarily in the Red Bank, NJ area. Horizons’ goal is to offer more than 125 students the opportunity to attend Horizons during the summer.

Volunteers

Volunteers are an essential component of the Horizons programs. Volunteers support our professional teachers, offer cultural and recreational programs, and serve as mentors to our students. Many RCDS alumni and their parents serve as volunteers for the Horizons children during the summer and by participating in our fundraising events, such as the annual Albert E. Martin, Jr. Hoops for Horizons Basketball Tournament.

Program Goals

- To prevent or reduce summer learning loss amongst Horizons students.
- To foster lifelong desire for learning.
- To provide cultural experiences and social growth.
- To ensure that all Horizons children learn to swim, an important life skill that saves lives and builds confidence.

Support

Horizons operates thanks to the generous support from The Rumson Country Day School, community-minded individuals, foundations, corporations and other charitable organizations. The cost of sending one child to Horizons for the summer is approximately $2,200, but we are able to offer our program to students in need for a nominal registration fee of $50 per child.

12  The Rumson Country Day School Annual Report
What a year it has been! I am proud to be a member of the RCDS community that has continually kept “our comrade spirit, in our work and in our play” throughout this sometimes challenging, but always exciting and rewarding year. I am in awe of the dedication, kindness and generosity of our parent community, and it is because of all of you that Parent Council was able to accomplish so much for our school this year. On behalf of each and every RCDS student, I offer my deepest thanks.

Parent Council is an organization made up of every single RCDS parent, and each year the Parent Council Executive Committee oversees over 20 different committees. Behind each event and Committee is a tireless workforce of volunteers, who give everything while expecting nothing in return, all with the common goal of helping our school give our children the best educational experience possible.

Because of the unwavering dedication and generosity of all our parents, Parent Council was able to generate proceeds of approximately $150,000 for our school and our children during the 2012-2013 school year. Parent Council is proud to have made such a large contribution to the enhancement of our children’s educational experience. Specifically, Parent Council is proud to help fund the recent security measures taken to improve our children’s safety and the beautification and transformation of the outdoor space outside of Mr. Small’s office into an outdoor gathering space and organic garden. This past year, Parent Council has also continued its tradition of making significant donations to the Financial Aid Fund and to the RCDS Library.

The Parent Council also funded another approximate $40,000 worth of programs, events and initiatives for our children this past school year, including bringing two nationally renowned speakers, Dr. Michael Thompson and Rachel Simmons, to RCDS for the benefit and betterment of our children, faculty and parents.

It has been an incredible year and again, I cannot thank everyone enough for all of your support. I look forward to another fun, exciting and successful year!

Fondly,

Jennifer Steiner Crowell ’88

Jayne Carmody, RCDS Lower School Head
Vitaæ Discæ Society

As an educator, I always knew that Annual Giving was extremely important to a private school's overall health and success because tuition doesn't cover everything. I soon realized the vital nature of Annual Giving when my husband, Frank, and I became RCDS parents. We saw, firsthand, the particular importance of Annual Giving when our five-year-old daughter, Suzanne, entered Mrs. Kolb’s Beginner’s class. Realizing that she was exposed to so many extras at this wonderful little school, we knew that any gift, large or small, could help RCDS continue to provide all the “extras” to the students. There wasn’t a day that Suzanne didn’t come home excited about school in general, or excited about what she had seen or done. Our family conversations at dinner were largely about a special program, a fun science experiment, the great book she read in class, or a new game in physical education that she had learned! Every day, she spoke about who she had lunch with, and what manners we should all use at our own dinner table! Her enthusiasm helped us to see that we had made the correct choice in enrolling Suzanne at RCDS, and we sought to support the school in the best way possible, through Annual Giving.

Today, Suzanne is still excited about learning, and Frank and I credit RCDS with igniting that fire. Suzanne now imparts that enthusiasm for learning to her son, Thurston. Frank and I are happy to continue to give to the institution that we credit with starting Suzanne on her path to lifelong learning, and we hope that in some small way our gift helps RCDS to reach other students who will have the same experience.

As an RCDS administrator, I know that Annual Giving helps not just the children, but also supports the excellent teachers, who are the foundation of The Rumson Country Day School. When studying William Shakespeare’s A Midsummer’s Night Dream in class, how exciting it is for the children to then see the play in their own auditorium! Or, as pre-Kindergartners learn about the ocean, then have the opportunity to view sea life at Jenkinson’s Aquarium in Point Pleasant. Beginners enjoy a special classroom visit from a friendly penguin to enhance their instruction of arctic birds. Upper School students go on overnight trips and benefit from numerous academic programs here at RCDS. Our children experience all of this, and more, because of the generous giving of everyone in the community - parents, alumni, faculty and administration. RCDS is a unique, outstanding institution that is truly like a family, and I am happy to support it for over 25 years!
Richard Shanley was a gifted teacher. Accomplished, caring and able to connect with many kinds of students, he worked at RCDS for ten years, teaching English, math, and serving as Director of Support Services.

Headmaster Chad Small described him as a “master teacher, a true Renaissance man,” saying that he could teach almost any subject to almost any child. Parents and students agreed, appreciating Rick’s talent for finding value in every student, regardless of ability or learning style.

Rick loved our school and we loved him; when illness forced him to retire early, the RCDS family stayed close as his health declined. When he passed away in April 2013, his brother, Frank, expressed his gratitude to RCDS, “especially for its support during the last 18 months of Rick’s life.”

“RCDS was different from any other place that Rick worked,” he added. “There is so much at the school about humanity and being a family. We were deeply touched. Directing Rick’s memorial gifts to RCDS seemed a fitting tribute.” The Rumson Country Day School remains touched by and grateful for The Shanley family’s designation of memorial gifts to benefit our school.
Richard S. Ellwood and his wife Liz have been faithful, longtime supporters of RCDS – as proud parents of Deborah '75, Alexander '83, and Sarah '85, as institutional leaders (Dick was a Trustee from 1975-85 and also chaired the Finance Committee; Liz was an active school volunteer) and as consistently generous donors to our Annual Fund.

Early in 1997, Dick decided to support the school in an additional way - establishing a Charitable Remainder Trust to benefit RCDS, and naming Sarah as a Trustee to the Account to demonstrate his pride in her winning the 1985 Trustees’ Prize. Sadly, Dick passed away late in 2011; soon after the transfer process was complete, the funds were added to our endowment, just as he had wished.

Dick was private about his contributions and had never given us his reasons for making this generous gift, but recent conversations with the Ellwood family have yielded no complicated rationale. It seems, quite simply, that even many years after his children had graduated, he still cared deeply for our school. “RCDS was very close to Dad’s heart,” daughter Sarah told us. “I, too, was totally in favor of establishing the Trust,” said wife Liz, “because I, as well as Dick, loved that church, loved that school.”

There are many ways your support of RCDS can make a difference to the students, faculty and to the future of the school:

- Cash/Check: Please make all checks payable to The Rumson Country Day School and send to 35 Bellevue Avenue, Rumson, NJ 07760.

- Credit Card: We accept Discover, MasterCard, and Visa; gifts can be made securely online at www.rcds.org/donate.

- Securities: Gifts of appreciated securities can offer significant tax advantages. Please direct inquiries regarding these types of gifts to the Director of Institutional Advancement, Jessica Goski, at jgoski@rcds.org or 732-842-0527 ext. 1142.

- Matching Gifts: A company or foundation that matches gifts can often double or triple the funds that RCDS receives, at no additional cost to the donor! Please take note that the RCDS website has an online tool for identifying companies that match employee donations: www.rcds.org/matchinggifts.

- Planned Giving: RCDS welcomes gifts through bequests or pension funds, as well as charitable trusts, paid-up life insurance, gifts through an IRA, or gifts through a 401(k). Anyone who notifies The Rumson Country Day School of a planned gift automatically becomes a member of The Legacy Society.

The Annual Donor Report includes all donations made between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013. We have made every effort to ensure that this listing is accurate and up-to-date. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Director of Institutional Advancement Jessica Goski at 732-842-0527 ext. 1142 or jgoski@rcds.org. Thank you.

Students in the Class of 2013 furthered a tradition begun decades ago at The Rumson Country Day School. The long-held tradition of gift-giving was continued as the graduating eighth grade class raised almost $3,000 through their annual Fall Carnival and elected to give a gift back to the school in honor of graduation.

Once again, the beloved RCDS Dining Room benefited from their generosity. Last year, the students voted to purchase brand new china plates for the school’s dining room and this year, the Class of 2013 will add a lazy Susan to each table, making family-style lunches just a little bit easier.
Eighth Grade Endowment

Eighth grade parents made a lasting gift to the Class of 2013 Endowment Fund. Collectively, Class of 2013 families contributed nearly $5,000 to the fund, which was added to the general endowment fund of The Rumson Country Day School.

An endowment is a powerful development tool because it is a permanent fund that is invested to produce income. Income earned on endowed gifts can help meet day-to-day needs of the school or address new initiatives as they arise. The general endowment fund provides both the Headmaster and the Board of Trustees with financial flexibility beyond annual budget allocation.

As with all endowed gifts, the funds raised through this eighth grade effort are invested, generating income to be used by the school on an annual basis and lasting in perpetuity. “The Eighth Grade Endowment fund provides a permanent connection between the graduating class and RCDS. Together, we are helping RCDS students to begin to understand the importance of philanthropy. Our eighth grade families’ support of school excellence in perpetuity through their gifts to the Class of 2013 Endowment fund is greatly appreciated,” said Jessica Goski, Director of Institutional Advancement.
